

THHI Privacy Policy

(As relates to website information)

The Tampa Hillsborough Homeless Initiative (THHI) is committed to protecting each visitor's privacy. The purpose of this statement is to detail all issues concerning privacy on our site.

What information do we collect and how do we use it?

While visiting our site we may ask you to give us various pieces of personal information in regard to requests for information, be added to our email lists, donations, feedback, volunteering, or other aspects of the Initiative's efforts to lead the community in addressing homelessness. The information gathered may include: name, local address, telephone number, fax number, and e-mail address. Information about the type of group (business, independent, faith organization, etc.) or group affiliation, type of request, donation type and conditions of the donation (if applicable) may also be asked. In addition, other non-identifying information such as website hits, types of web browser use, and types of operating system use will be recorded.

Use of all information acquired by THHI is restricted to internal use only. This includes any non-identifying information. It is our policy not to sell, trade, or rent your personal information to anyone. Personal information will be used in an internal database for follow up to inquiries, documenting interest and recording donations and volunteer time. In addition, e-mail addresses will be saved and entered into a database for use in the sending periodic newsletters and information about events, activities and news from THHI. Non-identifying information will be used exclusively for research and/or in optimizing the website in general.

How do you contact us regarding your information?

If you wish to stop receiving our newsletters, update your information, or wish for your personal information to be removed from our databases, contact Lesa Weikel at (813) 223-6115 or WeikelL@thhi.org.

For any other questions or concerns, contact the THHI via phone at (813) 223-6115 or email at info@thhi.org or via mail to:
